

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

Applicants submit herewith a substitute specification. This 15 page substitute specification has been amended from the English translation of the International Application also being submitted herewith. Applicants respectfully request the Examiner to enter the substitute specification into the record for consideration. The specification has been rewritten from the English translation for better understanding and no new matter has been added.